CONGRATULATION

HIROSHI MIZUOCHI

The bottom section of the image continues the Egyptian-themed silhouettes. It shows a variety of figures, including some standing with staffs, a central figure seated on a throne, and a group of figures on the right that appears to be in a celebratory or social interaction. The silhouettes are consistent in style with the top section.

The background of the entire image is a stylized, dark-toned illustration of Egyptian hieroglyphs. The hieroglyphs are arranged in horizontal bands. The top band shows a seated figure, a standing figure, a kneeling figure, and another standing figure, with birds on either side. The middle band is the most prominent, featuring the large, golden, 3D-style text 'CONGRATULATION' in the center. Below this text, the name 'AYANO KOSHIRO' is written in a smaller, white, sans-serif font. The bottom band shows various standing figures, some holding staffs, and a group of three figures on the right.
