

A pair of red and white boxing gloves is the central focus, positioned in a futuristic, metallic environment with blue and purple lighting. The gloves are detailed with white padding and red accents. Above the gloves, the title "FIGHTING VIPERS" is written in a large, stylized, orange and yellow font with a snake-like head at the top of the letter 'V'.

Step into the fighting Cage and Take a Crack at It!

Welcome to Armstone City, where anyone who's anyone is a "Viper." These hard-core brawlers are the chosen contenders in a huge tournament called NUTCRACK. The object of NUTCRACK is to smash through your enemy's armor – every blow weakens him or her a little bit until the armor explodes in incredible 3D polygon-based graphics!

- Choose from 7 characters, each with an arsenal of killer moves!
- Each character's fighting style is distinctly different – like Picky, the skateboarder who uses his skateboard to beat his opponent senseless!
- The intensity is caged, so there's no "ring out" – and no where to run!
- Players can slam their opponents into the wall to inflict extreme amounts of punishment!
- Players can use the walls to rebound themselves – to add a new dimension to their fighting strategy!
- Fighting Vipers introduces the "triple take" camera shot – when a character's chest armor is destroyed, the camera replays that exact moment three times in succession...and at different camera angles!
- Features ultra-cool backgrounds for the fighting arena!
- Phenomenal graphics! Even in close-ups, there's no hint of pixilation – very impressive!
- This heart-pounder will keep gamers coming back for more!
