

ALIENS VS PREDATOR TO HIT STORES ON 19 FEBRUARY

Aliens vs Predator to be available in Survivor Edition and Hunter Edition

December 10, 2009: SEGA Europe Ltd. can today announce that upcoming action shooter Aliens vs Predator will be released across Europe on 19 February 2010 on Xbox 360® video game and entertainment system from Microsoft, PlayStation®3 computer entertainment system and PC Games For Windows.

“Aliens vs Predator is the first title to be released in our partnership with Fox for the Aliens franchise, and it reinforces our commitment to provide high quality gaming for the core market. The team at Rebellion have been true to the Aliens and Predator universes and created a title that allows gamers to experience first-hand all the thrill, tension and excitement of the Aliens and Predator movies,” said Gary Knight, European Marketing Director of SEGA Europe.

In addition to the standard edition of the game, Aliens vs Predator will be available as a Survivor Edition and Hunter Edition. The Survivor Edition is a steelbook version of the game and includes an unlock code for 4 exclusive multiplayer maps which will be available to download post-launch. The Hunter Edition also features the PDLC of 4 exclusive multiplayer maps, as well as a fully posable facehugger model, a Weyland Yutani sleeve badge and a 3D lenticular postcard.

Experience a war like never before between three of sci-fi’s most iconic characters; the Alien, the Predator and the Colonial Marine. Aliens vs. Predator delivers three outstanding single player campaigns and allows gamers to pitch all three species against each other in multiplayer. Aliens vs Predator is developed by Rebellion, the team behind the 1999 PC gaming classic Aliens vs. Predator.
