

SEGA CHAN™

The New Entertainment Robot From SEGA!

Here Comes SEGA CHAN — the fantastic, futuristic robot that's sure to be a hit at arcades, shopping malls and other family locations.

SEGA CHAN delivers promotional impact where it's desired. This walking, talking marvel can shake hands, play recorded music, display videotaped messages on a built-in video screen, serve food and drinks, distribute literature and more! A special voice recognition programming device allows SEGA CHAN to answer specific questions, while touch sensors and danger prevention sensors make him completely safe to operate.

By using interchangeable attachments, SEGA CHAN can perform even more tasks and be adapted to so many functions that only your imagination limits his many uses!

Easy to operate, SEGA CHAN has shown in tests to be an extraordinary and functional promotional centerpiece, appealing to all age groups. Ideal for use in video arcades, malls and family restaurants, SEGA CHAN delivers your message and makes a favorable, lasting impression — Order Today!
