

The SEGA logo is located in the top right corner, rendered in its signature blue, blocky font with a registered trademark symbol.

Ever see one of those TV commercials that shows a sports car tearing up a winding, mountain road with small print that says

and thought “I could’ve taken that turn a lot faster.”
