MUSHIKING – Battle of the Beetles, the hottest coin-op
game in Japan, is about to take over America!

The game dispenses a MUSHIKING Collector Card at the start of every game. There are two kinds of cards, Beetle Cards and Skill Cards. The cards have bar codes on them that are read by the reader mounted to the control panel. Players swipe a Beetle Card and as many as 3 Skill cards then it's "off to the Fairy Forest" to compete against the computer or another player in a Beetle Battle Royal! Game play rules are derived from the age old game of rock, paper, scissors. Players send their beetle off to battle by pushing the rock, paper, or scissors button then sit back and watch the action as the two beetles go at it!
